Instruction

SUBJECT: CONTINUING EDUCATION

Any person sixteen (16) years of age or older may enroll in Genesee-Livingston- Steuben-Wyoming BOCES continuing education courses. Students currently enrolled in an elementary or secondary school must present a written statement from a home school official indicating that the adult class will not interfere with their home school program. All courses are open to persons regardless of sex, race, age, national origin, or handicapping condition. Where it is necessary to limit class enrollment, preference will be given to residents of school districts who are components of Genesee-Livingston-Steuben-Wyoming BOCES.
